Updates:

Change to alternative education:

Credit recovery for Bridges Program
College prep Mesa Distance Learning
Increase in fees by 200.00 to students. This amount is equal to what the high school is charged by Mesa Distance Learning

Tax credit outdated:

Actual amount is 6,432.92. Site council can vote on use of funds. Some funds are in the red but account needs to be balanced. Some line items “dissolve” when account is balanced. Balancing is done by Business Office personnel.

New Business:

Veronica Morrow makes motion for General Fund to pay for Grad Night Out.
Estimated cost up to 3000.00
Motion passed with unanimous approval

Veronica Morrow makes motion to invite family members to Grad Night Out. No family members under 18, guests 16 and under may attend. Five dollar fee will be charged for each guest and family member. Family members may stay 2 hrs. Guest may stay all night, but must be a student. Principal will screen guests. Reservations made by May 2, 2011. High School Seniors will assist in planning and set up. Motion seconded by Jennifer Miller and passed unanimously.

ID printer machine ordered by Dr. Hanley

CVHS Handbook changes, Patrick Wellert recommends changes to cell phone use policy.

T-shirts and sweats purchase for inappropriately attired students. Subject tabled until next meeting.

Rick Bradshaw gives presentation on new athletic participation guidelines. Currently Northern Arizona competition with sports teams, no plans to travel to Phoenix area for competition. Positive change because it will save district money, but may limit opportunities for students.

Ninth grade orientation video tabled until next meeting.

Old Business:

Booster Club ideas tabled until next meeting.

Site Council ideas to improve student attendance tabled until next meeting.

Prom to be at St. Michaels Hotel, CVHS considered, but decided St. Michaels is more appropriate and festive.

Senior Trip: 105 students have paid fee for trip to Disney Land.

Introduction of new principal at Chino Valley High School, George Westley Brownfield. Per Duane Noggle, Superintendent ten applications for position were received, five prospective applicants interviewed and principal selection decided on by Selection Committee and students in addition to CVSD board members.

The meeting was adjourned at 1020.

Next meeting date: Monday March 28, 2011 at 1800
